Messiah Lutheran Church seeks to be a welcoming community for all people. This includes people of every race, ability, sexual orientation and gender identity, ethnic background, economic grouping, religious affiliation, and political persuasion.

We do this simply because God created all people in God's own image and Christ Jesus came so all people might have abundant and eternal life.

We may not always be as welcoming as we should be, but this is our intention—all are welcome!

The Longest Night – Saturday, December 21

For many of us, Christmas is a bittersweet time of year. It is a time for remembering both people and events that have been a part of our lives in the past, but that are now changed or gone. This is the time of year with the longest nights, so around this time we offer a quiet, meditative worship service that makes time for remembering, sharing our hurting places with God, and preparing our hearts for the coming of Christ. Whether or not you find this season to be difficult, we invite you to join us for worship in the sanctuary on Saturday, December 21st at 5:00 pm, for a time of music, scripture, silent reflection, healing prayer and communion.

Please come.

We invite you to join us for a soup supper following this service in Magnuson Hall. If you can bring soup or bread, please sign up on the sheet on the Welcome Table. We also need volunteers to set up in Magnuson Hall and to clean up. If you can help with set up or clean up, please let the church office know.

About our Advent theme: “Words for the Beginning”

This year's Advent theme, Words for the Beginning, comes from the talented folks at A Sanctified Art. As in previous years, we will be using materials created by them throughout Advent.

Advent is a season of endings and beginnings. As the calendar year ends, a new church year rushes in. Christ's birth ushers us into new ways of living and loving—and yet, we feel the weight of many things ending. What are the reminders we need to move faithfully through this threshold? A Sanctified Art has crafted an Advent series filled with blessings, with the words we need to hear again and again as we begin a new season. Imagine the words Mary would speak to her newborn son. What scriptures and stories would she impart to him? What lessons would she teach him as he grew?

And so, the weekly themes may feel like the lessons taught to children, but in reality, these are lessons we continue to learn and relearn as adults. They may sound like the messages imparted to loved ones during special ceremonies or sacred rituals such as weddings, ordination services, or baptisms. You are invited to enter this Advent season as if you are entering a sacred new chapter, holding fast to the reminders that will bolster you for the journey ahead. In many ways, pregnant Mary was surrounded by endings—large and small, personal and political. And yet, Mary proclaimed hope in a God who was and is making all things new. As we also move through new chapters, may these words for the beginning renew us and remind us of the ways we are called to live out our faith. No matter what you are facing, no matter what this new day brings, let love be your beginning.

A Sanctified Art was inspired by the visual concept of quilting. Like a quilt formed by scraps of old fabrics and meaningful family items, this worship series stitches together the ancient scriptures and reminders we need to hear again and again. Quilts have been used for physical protection, comfort, ceremonies, abolition, family heirlooms, advocacy, and more. Quilting is a medium that transcends countless cultures, regions, and time periods, but is a craft rooted in community and storytelling.

Centering Prayer - Tuesdays at 11:00 am

Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect. Romans 12:2

This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord: I will put my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds” Hebrews 10:16

I am sure that there are many ways to “discern what is the will of God.” Centering Prayer is one of them. I believe that it is so effective because it requires me to request God's help, knowing there is no way this human can do God's will alone.

Centering prayer is the intention to consent to God's Presence and action within myself. It requires that I put aside all my personal ambitions, strategies for personal fulfillment, plans for safety, fears, and concepts and just “be still.” God knows me, way better than I know myself. God knows what lies I believe and how they cause me trouble in relationship with the world and God knows how to gently disabuse me of my wrong notions. God is gentle, not harsh, not punishing, and so I am able to tolerate seeing my shadow side via this method. Simply by being aware of how my actions are less than skillful, I find those actions happening less often. Centering prayer is a simple type of prayer, but I will not say that it is easy. It can be boring. It is often frustrating because human minds are not naturally quiet. It can sometimes be blissful, and then frustrating because the bliss is fleeting. The point of centering prayer is just to accept. Accept it all as God's gift.

If you can't attend a group in person, there are lots of opportunities to join a group via zoom online at www.meditationchapel.org The world will be a better place when more people turn to God for direction.

Benefits of an 11th Step Centering Prayer Practice

There is a direct linkage among self-examination, meditation, and prayer. Taken separately, these practices can bring much relief and benefit. But when they are logically related and interwoven, the result is an unshakable foundation for life. 12 & 12

The positive effects of the prayer are experienced in daily life and not necessarily during the prayer period itself. Growth happens when we practice

Centering Prayer in the context of the 12 Steps. Some benefits are:

- We enhance our ability to “Let Go and Let God.”
- We develop a nonjudgmental attitude of ourselves & others.
- We become more comfortable in our own skin.
- We grow in our capacity to listen and serve others.
- We nurture our ability to live in the present moment

Are you searching for emotional and spiritual sobriety? Whether you have been in recovery for a long time or are just beginning, you have probably experienced many frustrated feelings that didn't just go away when you got abstinent or sober...problems with relationships, work, anxiety, depression, or feelings of emptiness. These feelings are natural for us regardless of our addiction or time in recovery. But we don't have to let emotions rule our lives. The 11th Step offers us a solution! Through the simple method of Centering Prayer, we can improve our relationship with our Higher Power by simply consenting to our Higher Power's presence and action within us. Centering Prayer is an ancient meditation practice that has been used over the centuries, but it is different from what we may think of as prayer. It is not the type of prayer we are used to, like praying for something we want. It is simply moving deep within ourselves, in silence, saying nothing, asking for nothing, just being, by letting go of our thoughts and allowing our HigherPower to be with us. (taken from 12 Step Centering Prayer brochure.)

A weekly meeting will be starting on Monday, November 4th at 6:00 pm in room 201. This is an open meeting. All are welcome. You do not need to be in a 12-step program to attend. The meeting will begin with settling in with a prayer. A bell will ring at the beginning and end of our 20-minute silence. After our sit, we will read the Prayer of St. Francis. For more information, please contact Laura Petrie 906-250-1866. Or check out the website for information about Centering Prayer: www.cp12stepoutreach.org or at www.contemplativeoutreach.org

Lutheran Summer Music Academy and Festival 2025

Enrollment is open for the 2025 Lutheran Summer Music Academy and Festival. The primary way that young musicians find their way to LSM is through the encouragement of a caring adult – you. Please consider the young musicians in your congregation, school, or community who would thrive at LSM and connect them with us. Contact MaryLynn Mennicke, Dean and Director of Admissions, directly at mmennicke@lutheransummermusic.org or 612 879-9555 ext. 5 or click “Nominate a Student” at LSMacademy.org. We can then work together to get them to LSM 2025!

If you don’t have a direct connection to a young musician, you may have an indirect one. Share about LSM with friends, colleagues, extended family, teachers, or within your church or school. One simple connection from you could lead to a life-changing experience for a young musician!

Tell someone about LSM now – while we offer rolling admission, applications fees increase and spots will fill though the year, so we encourage student to apply early.

Important Enrollment Deadlines

*December 1, 2024: Priority Enrollment ($25 application fee)

*March 1, 2025: Standard Enrollment ($50 application fee)

*May 1, 2025: Late Enrollment ($75 application fee)

Holiday Meals for the Elderly

Do you know of someone in the greater Marquette area 60 years or older who will not have access to a traditional Christmas dinner?

Little Brothers - Friends of the Elderly's year-round mission is to reach out in friendship to our isolated and lonely elderly neighbors. The holidays are a time when we pull out all the stops.

Elderly folks are invited to dine-in at the LBFEE meal site, Marquette Elks Lodge #405, 127 N. Front Street. Transportation will be provided. Our dine-in guests are treated to a family style atmosphere incomplete with musical entertainment.

We also provide a traditional meal with dessert, and a friendship flower, that's then packaged in a bag exclusively designed by our youngest volunteers for delivery. The person knocking on their door turns this activity from a delivery into a friendship visit on this special day.

The number of meals available is limited and you must make a reservation for dine-in or delivery by Dec. 16.

Deliveries are 12:00-1:30 pm and dine-in is at 1:00 pm on each holiday. Due to the generosity of our community and volunteers, there is no cost.

Do you know someone who we should invite? Would you like to volunteer? Let's hear from you.

Contact Leslie Bek or Danielle Berg at 906-273-2575. More information about LBFE visit lbfemichigan.org.
