Messiah Lutheran Church seeks to be a welcoming community for all people. This includes people of every race, ability, sexual orientation and gender identity, ethnic background, economic grouping, religious affiliation, and political persuasion.

We do this simply because God created all people in God's own image and Christ Jesus came so all people might have abundant and eternal life.

We may not always be as welcoming as we should be, but this is our intention—all are welcome!

Life is full of transitions—between movement and stillness, strength and surrender, effort and release. Yoga invites us to embrace Everything [in] Between, finding balance in the tension and grace in the unknown.

This Lent, step onto your mat as a sacred space for reflection, growth, and presence. Whether you seek rest, renewal, or a deeper connection to your body and spirit, yoga offers a way to be fully here, in the now. All levels welcome. Please bring a mat or towel if you wish to be on the floor.

Our First Communion class for all interested kids (of any age) and their parents will be held on Saturday, April 12th in the afternoon 1:30 – 3:30 p.m. If you are wondering whether your child is ready, a simple curiosity in receiving communion can be the sign. All ages are welcome, even adults with a curiosity to know more about Communion. We will gather to learn about Jesus' Last Supper, what communion means to us as Lutherans and then bake bread together which will be served at the Maundy Thursday service on Thursday, April 17th. We will also celebrate first communion on Maundy Thursday at 6:30 pm with those in attendance from the class, helping to serve the congregation. If you have questions, please contact Pastor Molly. If you are planning on attending please RSVP by Monday, April 7th with Pr. Molly or the church office.

Help Wanted: Church Sign Virtuoso

Have a way with words? Enjoy a good pun? Ever dreamed of wielding the power of a marquee? We're looking for a brave soul (or team of souls) to take on the sacred and slightly mischievous task of updating our church sign!

Qualifications? A willingness to swap out letters in all seasons, an appreciation for pith and wit, and a knack for crafting messages that make people smile—and maybe even think a little.

Previous experience in dad jokes, wordplay, or holy humor is a plus but not required.

If you're up for the challenge (or just want to know what happens behind the scenes), contact Pr. Andrew.

Northern Great Lakes Synod

“What then shall we say to this?

If God is for us, who is against us?”

~Romans 8:31

Dear People of the Northern Great Lakes Synod,

As I write this article, we are still in a flurry of executive orders and declarations that give rise to a host of emotions. While some are cheering campaign promises kept, others fear for those most impacted and question the constitutional integrity of actions and orders. My own heart feels heavy as funds have been paused for humanitarian aid. I know the work of Lutheran Social Services makes a compassionate difference in the world and frankly, US AID funds make America look good. (It was through USAID grants that the NGLS was able to help build Kisarawe Junior Theological Seminary in Tanzania.) As we consider our theme of Seeds Sowers and planting seeds of faith, the seeds that are now being sown by these actions are unclear. Within that space of planting and growth is the tension between border security and a compassionate immigration system that works, between excessive spending and effective stewardship of federal resources, between legal processes and getting things done. What then shall we say to this?

There is much that I disagree with, and much that provokes concern. But my understanding of the example and call of Jesus to be his disciple brings me back to what I can do, what I should do, and what lies beyond my reach (although not beyond my grief and disquiet.)

I can call my congressional representatives to work to restore funds, and in the meantime, I can encourage congregations to gather in their Synod Assembly offering for World Hunger. I can support local and global efforts to address issues of poverty. I can participate with the efforts of our synod to make a difference with the people who are in our reach and continue to educate around international issues even as we pray for peaceful resolutions and just action. And I can remember, and remind you and myself, that the God we proclaim is one who promises new life from death. The Savior we serve is one who bids us to “go and do likewise,” not seeking to condemn but inviting us into a deeper understanding of how it is that the least are the greatest. God is for us and working through us to be the presence of Christ. What that means for us in these days, we figure out together. I find that the words of ELW Hymn #705 speak to me with new resonance:

God of grace, and God of glory
On your people pour your power.
Crown your ancient church's story.
Bring its bud to glorious flower.
Grant us wisdom, grant us courage,
for the facing of this hour.

Lo! The hosts of evil round us scorn the Christ, assail his ways.
From the fears that long have bound us
free our hearts to faith and praise.
Grant us wisdom, grant us courage,
for the living of these days.

Cure your children's warring madness;
Bend our pride to your control;
Shame our wanton, selfish gladness,

rich in things and poor in soul.
Grant us wisdom, grant us courage,
lest we miss your Kingdom's goal.

Save us from weak resignation
to the evils we deplore;
Let the gift of your salvation
be our glory evermore.
Grant us wisdom, grant us courage,
serving you whom we adore.

Grant us wisdom.
Grant us courage.

In Christ,
Bishop Katherine Finegan

Living Lutheran Back in Print

We heard you—and listened. We have found a way to bring back the magazine's print publication in a quarterly fashion. Each issue (spring, summer, winter and fall) will feature the stories you know and love, along with updates on the church and your ELCA community. The cost for one year will be $19.95 for an individual subscription and $17 per year for a congregation group subscription. Copies of the Spring 2025 edition are on the Welcome Table. Please help yourself.

Why Centering Prayer?

Fr. Thomas Keating, the person responsible for bringing centering prayer to the laity, talks about the "fruits of the Spirit" that flow from a dedicated practice to contemplative prayer. It took me a long time to realize I was experiencing those fruits from my contemplative practice. I noticed that my perceptions of the world were slowly changing and with the change in perception, I was becoming a more compassionate and kind person. Plus, I began to see that prayers that I thought had gone unanswered in my past, HAD been answered. I had been looking for a specific answer and God knew the answer that would actually work.

When Pastor Molly said this Benediction last week, it struck me to the heart:

As you leave this place, may you find God in every messy middle.

May you know that the world is bigger than two sides.

May you trust that you are made in the image of God.

May you move through this world with an open heart, with a curious mind, and with the confidence that you do not go alone.

God is with you in the mountains, in the valleys, and everywhere in between.

Believe that good news.

There was a time in my life when I did NOT believe that good news, but I believe it now. That has been one of the greatest gifts of my centering prayer practice: increasing trust in God and God's Love for God's creation, including me! And that God DOES answer prayer.

Personal Care Kits

A whole year has gone by and it is once again time to collect donations for Personal Care Kits. Last year we were able to send 48 kits to Lutheran World Relief for distribution where needed. In March & April items can be brought to the church and will be assembled by Ruth Circle.

Items needed for each kit include:

- 1 bath size towel, dark color preferred
- 1 toothbrush, adult size in original packaging
- 1 comb, large toothed preferred
- 1 metal nail clipper
- 2 bath size bars of soap

Items can be placed in the container provided in the narthex. Monetary donations are also welcomed to purchase needed items - just write 'personal care kits' in the memo line. Thank you for your generosity!

Lutheran Summer Music Academy and Festival 2025

Enrollment is open for the 2025 Lutheran Summer Music Academy and Festival. The primary way that young musicians find their way to LSM is through the encouragement of a caring adult – you. Please consider the young musicians in your congregation, school, or community who would thrive at LSM and connect them with us. Contact MaryLynn Mennicke, Dean and Director of Admissions, directly at mmennicke@lutheransummermusic.org or 612 879-9555 ext. 5 or click “Nominate a Student” at LSMacademy.org. We can then work together to get them to LSM 2025!

If you don't have a direct connection to a young musician, you may have an indirect one. Share about LSM with friends, colleagues, extended family, teachers, or within your church or school. One simple connection from you could lead to a life-changing experience for a young musician!

Tell someone about LSM now – while we offer rolling admission, applications fees increase and spots will fill though the year, so we encourage student to apply early.

Important Enrollment Deadline

*May 1, 2025: Late Enrollment ($75 application fee)
