“Revealed – Hope at the Edge of the World”

A New Sermon Series on the Book of Revelation

Beginning on August 3, we're going to spend five Sundays with a book that many of us have avoided, misunderstood, or just found a little...weird: Revelation.

But what if it's not about predicting the end of the world? What if it's about how to live in the world—faithfully, courageously, hopefully—even when things feel like they're falling apart? This series is an invitation to read Revelation not with fear, but with open eyes and open hands. We'll talk about empire and allegiance, beauty and resistance, and the kind of hope that doesn't ignore what's hard but moves through it.

There is a daily devotional to guide us through the month. It is available on the small table outside the church office. Please help yourself. Plenty of space for honest questions. And (I hope) a fresh look at a strange and stunning text.

If you're looking for a thoughtful way to engage the tension between faith and empire, hope and realism, Revelation might have more to say than you've been led to believe. – Pr. Andrew

Beach Worship – August 31st

Join us for worship by the water on:

- Sunday, August 31st (Labor Day weekend) at 10:30 am at Clark Lambros Beach Park

Bring a chair, invite a friend, and come ready to worship with sand between your toes and Lake Superior as our chancel. There's nothing quite like singing, praying, and sharing communion with the sound of waves in the background.

If the weather doesn't cooperate, we'll gather in the sanctuary as usual—but we're hoping for sunshine & a gentle breeze!

Community Meal - September 3

Our next Community Meal will be on Wednesday, September 3rd at 6:00 pm. Our cooks will be making spaghetti (with sausage), garlic bread, salad bar & dessert! Please join us for an evening of food & fellowship. We look forward to seeing you!

Exciting News: A New Childcare Partner at Messiah

As many of you know, Gretchen's House has made the decision to close their Marquette center. We are grateful for the care they have provided to children and families during their time with us, and we share in the disappointment of their closing.

At the same time, we are delighted to announce that Harbor Light Early Education, led by local director Ashley Crosland, will be our new childcare partner at Messiah. Harbor Light brings a commitment to the same high level of quality care and education—while offering more affordable tuition for families. Even more, Harbor Light's vision goes beyond childcare alone: they are seeking NAEYC accreditation, building a strong community connection, and creating opportunities for collaboration with families, NMU, and our congregation.

We are especially excited about the clarity of planning, excellent communication, and spirit of partnership that Ashley is bringing to this work. We will be sharing more in a letter to the entire congregation soon, and we look forward to a Sunday in the near future when Ashley will join us between services for a meet-and-greet and to share more about her vision for Harbor Light in our space.

Pastor Molly has returned to the office and will work half time for the next four weeks. She will be in the office on Tuesday/Thursday each week and weekends until September 21st. She will be back full-time starting Monday, September 22nd.

Confirmation Kick-Off: Come As You Are!

September 14, 5:00–7:00 pm - Immanuel Lutheran Church in Negaunee

We're launching a new year of Confirmation with a kick-off gathering on Sunday, September 14, from 5:00–7:00 pm at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Negaunee. All youth and their parents are invited—whether you're new to Confirmation or continuing the journey. Food will be provided!

This evening will be a chance to meet one another—youth, parents, and leaders from Messiah and around our partner congregations. Together, we'll celebrate the radical love of Jesus, explore what's ahead, and outline the rhythms of the coming program year.

As we begin this new chapter, Confirmation will now be centered around grades 7 through 9, with this year's focus being the life and teachings of Jesus in the New Testament.

If you have questions about Confirmation or this year's program, please reach out to Pastor Andrew or Pastor Molly. We're excited to walk this road with you.

Come curious. Come as you are. Come hungry—for dinner and for grace.

This Here Flesh — Book Study – September 15

What does it mean to live with dignity? To carry memory, fear, hope, and joy in a body that longs for healing? This September, we're inviting you to read This Here Flesh by Cole Arthur Riley—a beautiful, thought-provoking book that weaves together story, spirituality, and justice. Riley writes with honesty and beauty—poetic, grounded, and deeply rooted in lived experience. She explores themes like lament, rest, liberation, and wonder—not as abstract ideas, but as threads woven into our everyday lives.

We'll meet once in September (Monday, September 15 at 7:00 pm) to talk about what moved us, what challenged us, and what's still stirring beneath the surface. No homework. No pressure. Just a chance to show up, reflect, and be part of something honest and real. Books are available in the church office for $15. All are welcome—bring your story, your questions, and maybe a friend.

September Visit from Members of Azania Front, Tanzania

Our congregation will be welcoming nine guests from our companion congregation in Dar es Salaam, Tanzania, to visit us this month. They will be with us from September 19-October 1. All of us can play a role in making this group feel welcome. In a few weeks, on September 6th & 7th, members from our Global Mission team will be presenting a temple talk at the beginning of worship to let everyone know how they can participate as “day hosts” accompanying guests to a variety of activities at our church and in the community. And if you are not able to be a day host, you will have an opportunity to meet our guests on the weekends when they are with us in worship.

If you haven't had a chance yet, be sure to check out the kiosk in the atrium with the group members' pictures and information. We are very excited to share our congregational life and the Marquette community with our Tanzanian companions in a few short weeks. Pray for their safe travel!

A/V Project: Almost There!

We've $16,000 toward our $30,000 goal—over halfway there! Thanks to your gifts (and the Council's match), every dollar given now takes us twice as far.

These upgrades aren't about gadgets—they're about people. Stronger sound, T-coil support, better internet, and refreshed systems mean everyone can fully join in worship and community, whether in person or online.

We're in the home stretch. Let's finish strong—so that no one is left out of what God is doing here.

Jam News – Help Wanted

At the end of this harvest year Grant will be going into semi-retirement from the jam project that his wife started so many years ago. Fear not, you may still get the jam as Rebecca Ulland who has been assisting Grant, has agreed to keep the project going. However, she will need the help of volunteers. Know that you will be helping others through the community assistance fund along with providing a variety of jams for congregation members and the community. It is a good way to share God's abundance. If you are interested in helping Rebecca, please contact her at rjulland@yahoo.com

Brookridge Worship

Our worship service at Brookridge is held on the 2nd & 4th Wednesday at 1:30 pm. Several of our members live there & attend our service regularly. Our service includes hymns, confession, absolution, thanksgiving, psalms, scripture, a homily, Apostles' Creed and Holy Communion. It is a real worship service.

Worshipping with this congregation is a blessing. The singing is robust, the prayers are from the heart, communion and forgiveness is truly felt and the fellowship is sincere.

End-of-Summer Generosity: Staying Rooted Together

Summer has a way of shifting our rhythms—days at the lake, travel, family gatherings, and long evenings of rest. These are gifts of the season, and many of us need that space to renew our bodies and spirits.

Even while our routines change, the life of the church continues in full: worship each week, care for one another, outreach in the community, and preparation for the ministries of fall. That steady presence is only possible because of your generosity.

As often happens, giving has slowed over the summer months. This dip is natural, but it also means we enter the fall a little behind where we hoped to be. Your faithful support now will help us catch up and move forward with strength—ready for Sunday school, book studies, music, and the many ways we share God's love together.

If you've been away, consider making a special end-of-summer gift or setting up recurring giving. Every offering matters, and every gift helps root our ministry more deeply in Christ's love. Together, we can step into this next season with confidence, knowing that God multiplies what we give and uses it for healing, welcome, and hope.

New Presiding Bishop for the ELCA

The Rev. Yehiel Curry was elected as the next Presiding Bishop of the ELCA on July 30th at the churchwide assembly—a historic and joyful moment for our church. He is the first Black person ever to serve in this role. Currently bishop of the Metropolitan Chicago Synod, Curry brings years of experience as a pastor, community leader, and advocate for justice. His ministry began in Riverdale, Illinois, where he helped launch Shekinah Chapel, and has always centered on inclusion, relationship, and raising up new leaders.

Bishop-Elect Curry has spoken about the importance of not just naming a vision, but living it—bringing more people to the table and aligning passion with purpose. We give thanks for his leadership and pray for him and for our whole denomination as we move into this new chapter, trusting that the Spirit is at work in bold and hopeful ways.

What is Centering Prayer?

Centering prayer is a form of silent prayer that emphasizes resting in God's presence through silence and a sacred word. It involves finding a quiet space, sitting comfortably, and focusing on a chosen word to help maintain stillness and let go of thoughts. The goal is to cultivate a deeper relationship with God through stillness and receptivity. Several members of Messiah lead groups that practice this form of prayer throughout the week as a piece of their faith life. - Pr. Molly Hunter

Centering Prayer

Did you know that there's a prayer called the "I don't know" prayer?
You just go somewhere quiet and you sit at the feet of God and you say, "I don't know."
I don't know where to go from here.
I don't know what is happening.
I don't know how to process this.
I don't know what to do with these emotions.
I don't know how to handle this situation.
And then, with whatever little grain of faith you have, you say, "But You know."
And you leave it there. God most certainly answers your prayers.
- - Author unknown

Practice opportunities:

Here at Messiah Tuesdays from 11-noon, followed by Lectio Divina.
Online via Zoom at www.meditationchapel.org
Using the "Centering prayer" app on your smart phone
Learning about Centering prayer and practicing on your own via written materials.
Two books that have been helpful to me are "Open Mind, Open Heart" and "Invitation to Love" by Thomas Keating.
Listening to talks on YouTube. Many of Thomas Keating's talks are available.

In the Hospital

Please inform the church office when you are hospitalized. Pr. Andrew Plocher & Pr. Molly Hunter would like to visit you while you are there. If you are unable to notify Messiah, please ask a family member to do so.

Your Prayer Requests at Messiah

At every Saturday & Sunday worship service, we ask people to fill out a welcome card that is found in the bulletin. The card asks people to put their prayer requests on the back, and these requests are prayed for every Tuesday morning at Messiah's staff meeting. If you wish to have your name or a loved one's name read during worship, please call the office or let the pastors or Jen know. We will need to get permission before we include anyone's name in the worship prayers.

Iconography: Painting as a Spiritual Practice – October 13-18

Iconography is an ancient Christian tradition where painting becomes a form of prayer. More than just creating art, it's a spiritual practice—slow, reflective, and deeply rooted in centuries of sacred storytelling. Through color, shape, and tradition, icons invite us to see with new eyes and connect with the divine in a hands-on, meaningful way.

This 6-day workshop in October, led by a teacher from the Prosopon School, offers a unique chance to step into this sacred art form. It's open to anyone—no art experience needed. The workshop is an investment of both time and resources, but full details (including cost and registration) are available online.

The workshop will be held at St. Louis the King Catholic Church (264 Silver Creek Rd. in Marquette). For more information, contact Mary Jane Lynch 906 360-5279 or maryjanelynch62@yahoo.com.

Financial Help for Cancer Patients

If you or someone you know is going through any financial hardships while going through cancer treatment, please do not hesitate to contact Dave Poirier of Cancer Care of Marquette County (CCMC). 906-362-9226 / poirph@msn.com or Barb Salmela.

There are no income guidelines. Assistance can be for travel expenses, insurance co-pay, medical bills & medications related to cancer care. This organization is all volunteer based. Money to support is from fundraising, grants and donations. This organization is a 501c3 group so donations are tax deductible. But I cannot emphasize enough....to CALL if you need help.
